5 FEET OF SNOW ON SUMMIT; RAIN 2 INCHES OVER NORMAL

Highway Department Reports Road Open At Noon
Although Closed During Morning Hours;
Trace Of Snow At Kyburz; Chains Required

Five feet of snow on the Echo summit and rainfall in Placerville totaling 18.19 inches up to 8 a. m., 2.28 inches above normal, was the report Tuesday morning as El Dorado County shared with the rest of the state in the storm which set in eight days ago.

The state Division of Highways at Smith Flat reported that U. S. Route 50 to Lake Valley was open to the Echo summit and closed temporarily beyond that point. It was expected that the road would be open to through travel shortly after noon.

The snowline is at Kyburz resort where a trace of snow was reported Tuesday morning and cars going beyond that point are required to be equipped with chains.

Other snow depths along the Pony Express route as reported by the Division of Highways Tuesday morning show a total depth of 42 inches at Camp Sacramento; twenty-four inches at Twin Bridges.

At Strawberry resort, the total depth was fourteen inches of which eight inches was new snow. The snowfall at the summit in the past twenty-four hours was one foot.

Total rainfall in Placerville up to five o'clock Monday evening for the previous twenty-four hour period was 1.85 inches and the measurement at eight o'clock Tuesday morning showed an additional 1.43 inches since the last previous measurement.

E. D. Willis, maintenance engineer for the Division of Highways, reported that the storm thus far has failed to do any serious damage in the district.

Monday night in the westerly part of the county where there was what amounted to a cloudburst, Willis reports, and water ran a foot over the state highway a short distance below Clarksville for a time, and at about the same time was eighteen inches over the bridge across a small ravine in Sacramento County near the railroad crossing on the highway a short distance out of Folsom.

Owing to this heavy downpour, some cars bound for Placerville were turned back Monday night, and some others were taken through the water by pilot cars. Later, as the water subsided, regular travel was again restored.

A Bond For Good Health

THAT'S MISS VALERIA BOND, San Francisco artist, who designed the emblem for the 1940 "Fight Infantile Paralysis" campaign throughout the nation January 15 to 31. Miss Bond is pictured above with George W. Baker, state director for the campaign, who conceived the "March of Dimes" idea which now becomes a national activity assisting to fight infantile paralysis.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS DRIVE OPENS JANUARY 15TH

Robert Reeder El Dorado County Chairman
For "March Of Dimes," Half Of Returns Go
To National Work, Half Retained In County

"Fight Infantile Paralysis!" This 1940 battle cry will sweep El Dorado County, California and the nation January 15th to 31st in 13,000 communities to become the personal goal of the hundreds of thousands of men, women and children who each year sell the "March of Dimes" buttons, only source of funds to combat "the maiming death."

On the 1940 button, a shining dime is framed in a red, white and blue shield bearing the slogan, — "Fight Infantile Paralysis." Miss Valeria Bond, San Francisco commercial artist, designed the button. Miss Bond also designed the button which became famous in the 1939 drive on Infantile Paralysis.

George W. Baker, Jr., Director of California Organization for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., originated the original "March of Dimes" idea. Because of President Roosevelt's enthusiasm, the button has become a national symbol and in January, 1939, over 13 million were sold.

On the occasion of the meeting of the originator of the "March of Dimes" and the young artist who designed the "March of Dimes" button, Baker stated, "The 1940 goal, January 15th to 31st, is 30 million buttons, for during the past months Infantile Paralysis has struck again and again with all its elusive power to zigzag from state to state, leaving epidemic and withered bodies in its wake.

"Since the 1939 drive the nation's medical resources have been financially united in a permanent fight to destroy Infantile Paralysis. Great progress has been made but this year we must raise enough money to make the battle an overwhelming one, to discover the virus of polio and dispose of it forever!"

Miss Bond added, "Of course I'm proud to have designed the 1939 and 1940 buttons but personally I'd like to see 40 million of them united in the most terrific struggle the United States has ever waged against Infantile Paralysis."

Local chapters of the National Foundation have been organized in major cities throughout the United States. In El Dorado County, Robert Reeder is chairman and will have charge of the local drive. Fifty per cent of the funds raised are sent to the National Foundation for research in finding a cure and the remainder to aid local victims of the dreaded disease. California's quota in the national drive is $300,000. This State, which has led the nation for two consecutive years, has raised a total of $229,358 in 1939.

Efforts To Prevent Spread Of Conflict Overshadow New Finnish Successes

By UNITED PRESS

New Finnish thrusts in the Arctic and a burst of patrol activity along the western front were reported today, but Europe's main interest centered on diplomatic maneuvers to forestall spread of conflict to Scandinavia or the Balkans.

Great Britain's political storm, arising from the retirement of War Secretary Leslie Hore Belisha, also continued to hold attention but it was uncertain whether or when Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain would give a full explanation of the circumstances, which were generally connected with progress of the war in France.

On the Finnish front—as important to the Allies now as the minor developments in the Rhineland—there came still more reports of successes against the Red army. Information reaching the Norwegian frontier said that Finnish ski patrols were operating over a wide area in the far north and had attacked and possibly destroyed a Russian base at Jordanfoss.

Two spots—Scandinavia and the Balkans—continued to hold the center of attention in connection with threats of new war moves but there did not appear to be any increase in immediate danger.

"Gosh!," Said Doctor 5 Times As Dionne Quints Arrived

By UNITED PRESS

Dr. Allan Roy Dafeo, as famous as the Dionne quintuplets whom he brought into the world, has decided to sever one of his links to the world's most famous babies. He remains their personal physician but not their guardian.

It was early in the morning of May 28, 1934, that Dr. Dafeo attended the birth of the five Dionne girls. Several months later in New York's Carnegie Hall, the country doctor thus described the birth of the quintuplets, the 33rd set recorded in medical history in the past 500 years:

"At 4 a. m. on May 28th, a hurry call came from the Dionne home. I arrived to find the house in confusion, no preparation made for the confinement. I was astonished to find two babies already had been born. Two neighbors were acting as midwives and doing excellent work.

"I scrubbed up in the best way available and took over the situation. In the meantime another baby appeared in the world and this was followed by still another. The last two babies were born with an 'angel's veil,' or a caul, covering them. In olden times an incident of this nature was supposed to bring good luck.

"In the early hours of the morning still sleepy from a previous obstetrical case that night, the whole situation seemed to be unreal and dream-like. The attendants told me afterward that my eyes were bulging and with the arrival of each baby, my only word was 'gosh' with ascending inflection."

Dr. Dafeo traces his family history back to his Dutch DeVos ancestors who arrived in the New World as immigrants in 1688. His father also was a doctor.

Born on May 29, 1883, Dr. Dafeo was educated at the Madoc public schools and Toronto University. As soon as the ink was dry on his medical diploma he headed for the lumber camps in northern Ontario. He remained in these camps for a short time, then one day he happened to hike to Callender. He decided to establish his practice there and on Jan. 2, 1909, he began serving the small community.

Gray-haired and sturdy, Dr. Dafeo has remained a simple man despite the homage he has received. He refuses to capitalize on his association with the quintuplets, turning down every opportunity to profit commercially.

He was decorated with the Order of the British Empire by the late King George V on June 4, 1935.

CAMINETTI TERMS FEES IN LIQUIDATION "A DISGRACE"

SAN FRANCISCO. (UP)—State Insurance Commissioner Anthony Caminetti, Jr., today characterized as "a disgrace" the payment of more than half a million dollars for attorneys' fees in liquidation of the old Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company.

In a letter to Attorney General Earl Warren, Caminetti estimated the fees at $561,821 and said if comparable fees for attorneys' services in the case during 1939 were authorized, he would fight their approval in the courts.

Judge Caminetti took particular note of the payment of $179,304.04 during a three-year period to one Los Angeles law firm, which, he charged, "disclosed an utter disregard for the funds of the then insolvent company."

ROOSEVELT LEADS PARTY IN "JACKSON DAY" OBSERVANCE

WASHINGTON. (UP)—The cabinet's third term boom reverberated today in the aftermath of Jackson Day addresses which sought to draft President Roosevelt while he spoke philosophically here of the responsibilities of high office.

He had promised a non-partisan speech and made good with little or no partisanship in his remarks before a glittering $100 a plate audience which included some big social and money names as well as those in politics.

But last night's political talking was being done elsewhere, in Cleveland, and Denver and Des Moines, and in Raleigh, N. C., and in others of the 45 communities which honored the memory of Old Hickory at from $10 a plate up.

Donald E. Demmon, special agent for Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, from the western office in San Francisco, was here Tuesday calling upon the local agent, George E. Faugstad.

This is according to word received by his parents.

The score shows that Martin was third with 18, while the two who shot ahead of him were tied at 189. Eight members of the Gridley team shot 180 or above, while the Twin Cities team failed to place one man in that class.

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

LOS ANGELES (UP)—That charming vagrant, the tennis bum, won't be with us much longer.

The same tennis officials who made his "remittance man" life possible have suddenly waked up and realized what a wrong they were doing to a group of boys and the sport of tennis.

Up until this year any younger amateur tennis player with talent could make a living out of the game. A lazy, lousy, listless living, but a living nevertheless. With expense funds from his own association, and what he could wrangle in the way of board, lodging and appearance money from clubs holding tournaments, he could just drift about the country all year long.

Winters in Florida, California, Bermuda, Nassau, and almost everywhere else that the sun shines during the cold months. Summers in the east and midwest. East-hampton, Southampton, Rye, Sea-bright, Spring Lake, Canada, odd spots in Wisconsin, and, for the very good ones, Australia, Egypt, and way points.

It was a racket with a racquet. Many a boy who got good at tennis drifted into this indolent, pleasureable life without realizing what he was doing to himself and to his future. The life of a tennis bum was so easy to take. The best hotels, the smartest country clubs, Adulation. The prettiest girls. And dancing. Parties.

There was always enough for spending money, and there was not a care for tomorrow. There was always another tournament ahead.

A few years of this and many a boy was unable to put his racquet aside and go to work.

The United States Lawn Tennis Association made a show of stamping out this real evil in the sport, which was making tennis bums on a wholesale scale of so many of the young men, several years ago. The Association passed a rule forbidding any player to travel outside of his home district on expense account for more than eight weeks during a year.

However, this rule was not enforced and many of the boys played not eight weeks, or eight months,

Eaglets' New Plumage

Captain K. L. Johnson wears the new uniform of the U. S. army air corps cadets, worn for first time at Glendale, Cal. Sky blue trousers are surmounted by deep blue zipper jacket and a blue flight cap. Familiar "star in circle" insignia of army planes is done in brilliant red and blue on shoulder.

but twelve months a year on expense account. But, it would seem, that finally the old tennis father pinched another old tennis father and said:

"Look! We've got a rule here that might be a good one if we would only enforce it."

So the Association sent out a warning that the eight week rule was really a rule, and to show that they meant it hailed two of the game's star players, Wayne Sabin and Gene Mako, onto the carpet. At last report Sabin and Mako were still ineligible for sanctioned U. S. L. T. A. tournaments.

If the U. S. L. T. A. doesn't weaken on the enforcement of the rule it will just about finish off the wandering of the tennis bum. He will have to stick pretty close to his home base and save his eight weeks of touring on expense account for the eastern grass court circuit in the summer. A player must make this tour of the grass court tournaments, which has the national championships at Forest Hills for its climax, if he hopes to gain national standing. Because the result of these tournaments form the basis for the national ranking.

So, Bye-Bye tennis bum. You were charming but not worth a damn.

THREE REASONS for the success of the musical comedy film, "Hawaiian Nights," at the Empire Theater Tuesday and Wednesday, are Johnny Downs, Mary Carlisle and Eddie Quillan. And a fourth, if that be needed, is Matty Malneck and his band, who take part in the picture.

CHILL AND LAUGH HIT WITH MUSICAL COMEDY ON EMPIRE SCREEN

Gaining popularity through radio appearances and phonograph recordings, Matty Malneck and his orchestra have come to be considered one of the most sensational musical groups to be developed in the last five years.

Chosen by Paul Whiteman as a violinist on his All-American selections, Malneck conducts his own band for the introduction of four brand new songs in "Hawaiian Nights," new Universal musical film at the Empire Theatre for Tuesday and Wednesday.

In addition to their musical contributions, Malneck and the members of his orchestra have acting roles in the picture which features Johnny Downs, Mary Carlisle, Constance Moore, Eddie Quillan, Princess Luana and more than two hundred native girls in colorful dance revues.

The second feature on the two-day bill presents the popular fiction detective, "Oliver Quade" in a chill and laugh hit, "Death of a Champion," which has Lynne Overman in the principal part.

Of this amount, the fair association returns to the county the $6,892.48 which was loaned by the Board of Supervisors, and turns the balance, as prescribed by law, into its fund for capital improvements. This balance is $7,515.15.

"Under the regulations governing the fairs, each fair is permitted to increase its premium award list ten per cent each year," Dr. Anderson explained. This means that we have authority to expend as much as $7,986 for premiums for the fair in 1940."
